

Tanka Poetry Evening at Manning Clark House

Friday 8 May 7pm – 9.30pm

Location

Manning Clark House

11 Tasmania Circle, Forrest

Contact

E carol.hayes@anu.edu.au

Light refreshments will be provided.
All welcome.

Other information

- > Copies of 'From the Middle Country' and 'All You Need Is Love' will be on sale at special launch price (TBA)
- > Entry is free for members of Manning Clark House and participating poets.
- > General entry is $10

Program

Introductory musical item, shakuhachi and piano

Launch of 'From the Middle Country', the 3rd tanka collection by Noriko Tanaka, translated by Saeko Ogi and Amelia Fielden

Launch speech by Dr. Carol Hayes, ANU

Bilingual readings from this collection by Noriko Tanaka and Carol Hayes

Brief interval

Musical item, shakuhachi and piano

Launch of 'All You Need Is Love', new Australian tanka anthology edited by Amelia Fielden

Launch speech by award-winning Canberra poet Melinda Smith

Readings of their work by a number of local and Sydney poets

Musical item

Conclusion

Presented by

ANU College of
Asia and the Pacific